Saturday Last Day of Contest

All Votes Must Be In Before
3 P. M. on April 26.

Improve These Last Few Hours of the Contest. Better to Hustle Now Than to Express Regrets Later.

The Hustler Will Surely Win in This Contest as in All Others.

There are now but a few more hours in which the candidates engaged in the Climax popular voting contest have to work for the several prizes offered. The voting comes to an end on Saturday April 26, at 3 p. m. and immediately thereafter the counting will be commenced, to who shall be the winner of the splendid Obermeyer piano and the other beautiful and useful articles offered to those who are making an endeavor to land the premiums. It is not believed by those who have given the matter careful thought that any particular person has the grand prize clinched at the present time, but there are several in the race who have a good chance to land it if they hustle.

There are several young ladies who appear to have the best of the contest, but none of them have a sure cinch of being the ultimate owner of the first prize. If one of these contestants who is way down the list should take it into her head that she was going to win the big premium, she could do so. She would have to do some work to make it but that was what was expected when the contest opened. Several bunches of seven new subscribers or renewals in the groups of subscribers would put the lowest candidate in the race up among the leaders.

For those who wish to vote without any competitor seeing them, the Climax desires to state that cash with your subscription, telling where the paper is to be sent and to whom the votes shall be given, can be placed in an envelope and deposited in the bank. The judges will open these envelopes as soon as they start to count and will credit all votes, including bonus votes. In order to secure bonus votes on merchants' coupons they must be counted at the Climax office before being voted.

Miss Taylor was in the lead at the last count. Several others are well to the front and are putting forth every effort on the home stretch. To win the coveted prize. Either of these young ladies can land the prize if they will only take the time to get out and solicit subscriptions and renewals.

Every bunch of seven new subscriptions means 9,000 votes and seven renewals will bring in 6,000 votes, and the way to win is to get these new subscriptions and renewals, as they count up rapidly and they carry with them the big bonus offers which contestants should be seeking.

From now on until the close of the contest, which will be on Saturday, the 26th of April, we will give the following bonuses. These will positively be the last bonuses offered, from now to the close:

The bonus is from now on as follows: For every 7 new subscribers 8000 extra votes making a total of 12800. For every seven renewal subscriptions we will give 6,000 extra votes, making a total of 9,500 votes.

For every seven back subscriptions we will give 4,000 extra votes, making a total of 6,800.

For every (2) twenty years, a total of 135,000 votes will be given. For every three 5 year, new or renewal subscriptions 25,000 extra votes making a total of 40,000 votes.

For every forty merchant's coupons 1000 extra votes. By studying out the above bonus offers any contestant will be able to win as each and all have this right.

These merchants' coupons may be collected from any and all merchants who are giving coupons, and must be brought to the Climax office in bunches of 40 tickets, to be counted by the publisher or one of his assistants before the coupons will be issued.

Saturday, April 26, the voting will cease and the final count will be made that evening. This is but a short time ahead and it is worth the while of the candidates to get out among the people and work like Trojans from now until the ballot box is closed at 3 p. m. of the day mentioned. No ballots will be received after 3 o'clock under any circumstances, no matter who may have them or what excuse they may present for not getting them in at the proper time.

The contest is on the square and there is to be a fair field and no favorites. All bonus votes that are to be cast must be accompanied by the number of coupons stated on the bonus or the bonus votes will not be counted nor allowed to be given to contestants.

Merchants need not be afraid of buying an over supply of coupons, since we will redeem at what you paid for them all you have left over at the close of the contest.

The following merchants give a coupon with every one dollar cash purchase to those who ask for them. Get your tickets when you buy your goods. No tickets given on accounts.

Prominent Richmond People

Dr. C. E. Smoot and Mr. Dan H. Breck, two of Richmond's most progressive and popular citizens were in Danville yesterday. Dr. Smoot met with a serious accident recently. When working on his automobile his hand became entangled with the mechanism and two fingers were crushed off. He is one of Richmond's leading physicians and surgeons, and the accident caused deep regret. Danville Messenger.

A Family of Doctors.

A family reunion of the Pennington brothers was held in London this week, when four of the brothers all gathered there. They were Dr. E. B. Pennington, of Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. J. R. Pennington, of Richmond, Ky.; and Drs. H. V. and M. K. Pennington, of this place. Dr. P. A. Pennington, of Louisville, could not be present. The brothers are all either physicians or dentists, and all stand high in their profession. We doubt if a family can be found in this or another State which contains five doctors. All are splendid, good men who have honored their profession and who are yet young enough to make a greater mark in their chosen fields. London Echo.

All kinds of garden and flower seeds and bulbs. D. B. McKinney. 53-1f

Newspaper Advertising Can Help Move Food Products

Many millions of dollars are spent annually for food products. Many millions more would be spent for specific brands if the manufacturers of those brands brought them to the attention of the housewives of the land through persistent newspaper advertising. If manufacturers of all food products specialized in daily newspaper talks to their various publics, if they told the public something that was actually news, informative—something worth while, they would not only be spreading valuable knowledge, but they would be creating a steady and definite demand for their products.

Cereals, breads, cakes, tea, coffee, cocoa, chocolate, meats, hams, sausages, salt, pepper, and spices—all are full of advertising possibilities.

How long will it take some of the food concerns to awaken to the truth of this? Quite a number of the "wiser ones are wise" on the subject and their business grows accordingly.

You can aid materially in stirring up the "late sleepers," Mr. Local Merchant.

We have arranged for a Special Sale

On the celebrated Stearns & Foster Mattress and are offering this most Comfortable, Durable and Sanitary of all Mattresses, in selected patterns of the best qualities of Satin-finish, Dust-proof Tickings—WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

Beware of so-called "Special Sales" on "Cotton-felt" or "Felt" Mattresses—said to be the "genuine kind" and offered at such ridiculously low prices as are sometimes seen displayed. You do not know WHAT sort of material has been hastily STUFFED into the ticking. From a Sanitary standpoint, it may be vile; unfit for any person to sleep upon. As for genuine Comfort and Durability, such Mattresses are utterly worthless. It don't pay to buy them.

Stearns & Foster Mattresses have a laced opening (Pat. applied for) through which you can see and examine the inside of the Mattress you GET. That's the safe way to buy a Mattress. You know what you are getting.

Stearns & Foster Mattresses are made of Clean, Sanitary Cotton; felted into hundreds of little webs forming many Springy, Buoyant layers standing nearly three feet high. These layers are then LAID BY HAND and compressed to ONE-SIXTH their original height and encased in the ticking; then tufted to just the proper tension so as to be Soft, yet Firm, half yielding to your figure, but supporting it in perfect relaxation.

You will say—

"I never Knew a Mattress could be so Comfortable."

That's just what satisfied users of Stearns & Foster Mattresses are saying. You owe it to yourself to get one and enjoy rest that is Refreshing—Comfortable—Healthful.

You don't have to be put to the expense and inconvenience of sending a Stearns & Foster Mattress away to be "Made Over" or "Renovated." They never require it. An occasional Sun Bath keeps them fresh and clean.

Don't Fail to attend this Sale. Come today.

Select the Mattress you want—NOW. Don't put up longer with that old uncomfortable Mattress.

A Comfortable Night's Rest on a Stearns & Foster,

Bryan And Clark Make Up.

To get in sight of the promised land and then not get there, as Moses did, must be soul trying and to almost realize one's highest ambition and fail through the efforts of one always heretofore regarded as a friend, as Champ Clark did, would naturally cause a feeling of resentment, which hardly any atonement would remove. By all precedent Mr. Clark was entitled to the necessary two-thirds for the presidential nomination, after securing much more than a majority of the votes, but just as his hopes were about to be attained, Mr. Bryan jumped into the breach and by denouncing Mr. Clark's New York support, turned the tide and Mr. Clark saw his fondest hopes decay. That he had very great reason to feel bitter towards Mr. Bryan none can deny, but Mr. Clark did not let his resentment towards him affect his duty to Democracy, and like the good Democrat that he is, he immediately congratulated his successful opponent and made an effective canvass for him in many States.

These two enemies had not met since the Baltimore convention till a few nights ago, when they were guests of honor at a luncheon, arranged by Mr. T. A. Bell of California, who was temporary chairman of the Denver convention and chairman of his State's delegation at Baltimore. Remembering the scriptural praise of peacemakers, Mr. Bell's sole object was to reconcile the two and he very fully demonstrated his right to be numbered with the children of God, for his object was gratifyingly secured. Mr. Bryan disclaimed any intention of reflecting on Mr. Clark's Democracy, which is above criticism, in his speech at Baltimore and expressed great regret that Mr. Clark had so construed

Listen! Big drops come in our prices when we FIRST mark our goods.

It is not our way of doing it to always be having sales, sales, "sales." We always have a sale on. That's what we are in business for. We don't have to cut prices half of the time to "force" business. We make our prices right when we first mark our goods, and don't need to "force" business hard; it comes to us easy.

They are coming our way, thank you, because our way is the right way. You can't go wrong when you come our way.

There may be no relation to cause and effect in the matter, but we are experiencing a great deal better brand of weather since President Wilson fired Chief of the Weather Bureau Moore for gross irregularities in his office. Moore was appointed by Cleveland and had held the position ever since, having fooled several Presidents into the belief that he alone knew how to run the weather. He thought Wilson ought to appoint him Secretary of Agriculture, but he didn't, and then Moore tendered his resignation, to take effect July 1st. The fact has since been disclosed that he used the money from his office to prosecute a campaign to further his promotion and on learning this, the President dismissed him from office and turned his case over to the courts.

CONGRESSMAN CANTRELL, who is opposing the appointment of Editor Breckinridge, of the Lexington Herald, to a national revenue collector, seems to prove by the record, in a letter to the democrats of the Seventh district, that no matter what he may be now, the editor has not been a good democrat by any means, having opposed since 1890 large numbers of the party's nominees. In reply Mr. Breckinridge says that the Congressman is not worthy of consideration till he has disproved his charges of bribery in the matter of the location of the State capital. And there the matter stands. If Mr. Cantrell would prove the falsity of the charge against him as easily as he has proved Mr. Breckinridge's party irregularity, it would greatly increase his standing and take a weapon from his enemies.

The Republicans and Bull Moosers of Lincoln county will each have tickets in the field for county offices, which means that the democrats nominated at the August primary will have even smoother sailing there this fall than usual.

One-Cent Postage.

Those of us who can recollect that long, recall that some 12 or 15 years ago the republican party in National convention assembled made one-cent letter postage one of their planks in the platform of promises. It has never done so as you would notice it, because the way the Postoffice Department has been run precluded it and one-cent postage went to join the long list of unfulfilled promises by the party so long in power.

It may not be generally known, but there is an organization styled the National One-cent Letter Association, with headquarters at Cleveland, O., which is demanding of Congress that letter postage be reduced one-half. Remembering the high cost of transportation of letters many years ago, the present rate is not oppressive, but if the revenues of the postoffice department will admit of the reduction of one cent, the democratic party can make a big hit by doing so. With a Postmaster General thoroughly decided to put the postoffice on a business basis, there is little doubt that if this reduction cannot be made now, it can be in a year or two.

If while reducing the tariff on the necessities of life the democratic party could also reduce the letter postage, its popularity would be so greatly increased that there would be no question of a further loss of power. When the poor man can feed and clothe himself without giving up his all and write letters to his friends with but the tax of a cent, everybody will be so satisfied and happy that socialism, which showed so largely an increased vote at the last election, will peter out like the populist, prohibition and other so-called parties, which spring up today and are gone tomorrow.

We buy all kinds of country produce, pay the highest market price. Give us a call. Covington Thorpe Co. 57-11.

Rev. W. H. Hopper, of Burside, and Elder John Turner, of Campbellsville, were elected delegates to the General Assembly, which convenes at Atlanta on May 15.

Rev. Gubard, a divinity student, preached a most excellent sermon at the First Presbyterian church last Sabbath morning, and Miss Laura Bright rendered a beautiful solo at the same service. In an address on missionary work in African jungles, Bishop W. R. Lambert, M. E. Church, South, declared that slavery was a blessing to the negro race and that the Southern woman had proved the greatest of missionaries.

Albert House Shoots George Bronston to Death.

About midnight Saturday the peace and quietude of the city was broken by four pistol shots, three of which were in rapid succession. Policemen Jesse Dykes and Claude Devore were quickly on the scene, being only about fifty yards away and seeing the flashes. Arriving, they found Albert House, who was placed under arrest and put in jail. Over in Hayden Estill's negro pool-room they found George Bronston, a well known negro, dying with three bullet-holes in his breast. He died five minutes later. Mr. House was brought before Judge Shackelford Monday morning, but County Attorney Jackson was not ready, and the examining trial was set for this morning at 9 o'clock. Application was made for bail for Mr. House by his attorneys, Messrs. H. C. Rice and S. A. D. Jones, but this was denied on the ground that bail could not be allowed before some of the witnesses were heard and the prosecution was not prepared for such. Application for guard was then made and Judge Shackelford granted this and Policeman Claude Devore was selected and he acted. At the trial this morning, both sides announced ready and a number of witnesses were examined. Mr. House testified, and he was substantiated, that he was passing not far from Hayden's pool-room when George Bronston, who was standing in or near the door, made a remark to him, using a vile epithet. "Did you intend that for me," asked House. Bronston replied that he did not call anybody such names, but at the same time fired at Mr. House missing him. It was then that Mr. House used his weapon and fired three shots into Bronston's body. Messrs. Dykes and Devore swore that when they entered Estill's pool-room they saw a negro named Lewis Gilbert with a pistol in his hand and they asked him where he got the weapon. He answered that he had gotten it from Bronston. The pistol was found to contain one empty shell and one chamber had no cartridge. There were only three witnesses for the defense and they all swore virtually the same. There were others present but it was not deemed necessary to introduce them. Eleven were offered for the prosecution and they differed only as to the number of pistol shots fired. There was no speech on either side. Judge Shackelford announced that he would hold the defendant over to the grand jury on his own recognizance of $500, and the witness $100 each. The court house was crowded during the trial, which lasted less than two hours.

The examining trial of Roscoe Price and Milford Arnold, arrested in connection with the fatal shooting of Cora Whitaker, daughter of Alfred Whitaker, was held before County Judge R. C. Early Morning Fire.
The fire ladders were called from their beds at 3:30 Monday morning while they were enjoying the best part of the night's sleep, but made a quick response nevertheless. A call was sent in from the East End. Albert Lake's store caught fire from an unknown cause and was under strong Broadway when the blaze was discovered. The building and its contents, the latter amounting to about $600 or more in value, went up in flames. Two dwellings, owned by Judge E. C. Million, were also burned. The company was called out again about noon to the city dump, some rubbish having caught fire, endangering a house near by. The blaze was extinguished before the house caught fire.

About That Christmas Money.

A week or so ago the Climax told of a scheme the Madison National Bank had to help you save some money for Christmas. The plan is this: You deposit five cents this week, and ten cents next week and five cents more each week until about Dec. 1st. Then the bank will mail you a check for the whole amount. In this way you save up a little each week and do not miss the money. The scheme seems to be a popular one, for on yesterday when it began 40 accounts were opened, many people who had never had a cent in the bank before in their lives. Cashier Burman says he is more than pleased with the start and believes that the number of depositors will remain open until May 1st. Better join it. The earlier you get in the better and the more money you will have when the giving season comes.

MARRIED

Everett Pittman Benz, aged 29, obtained license yesterday to marry on the 26th Miss Jennie Kindred, sweet sixteen. Both live in the Beres section.

Shelby Collins, of Beres, and Miss Amanda Weaver, of Paint Lick, were made one after God's holy ordinance in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Matthews Dead.

Mrs. Emma Matthews, wife of Joseph Matthews, who lives in the White Hall district, died of tuberculosis yesterday and was buried in the Higginsett burying-ground at 11 o'clock this morning, after funeral services. Besides her husband, she leaves five little children to feel keenly the lack of a mother's tender love. She was 30 years of age and a most excellent, christian woman.

Mr. L. D. Blake Crosses The Great Divide.

Mr. L. D. Blake, aged 50, died at his home in this city Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock of a dropsical trouble. He is survived by his wife and four children. He came to Richmond several years ago and started to work for the Indian Refining Co., but was connected with the L. & N. when his fatal illness began. He was a hard-working, honorable and clever man and many there are who mourn his demise. Dr. G. W. Crutchfield, of the Methodist church, conducted funeral services at the late home at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon and the remains were then taken to Carlisle Monday morning and laid to rest. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Alexander Shaw Dead.

After an illness of several weeks' duration, the spirit of Mr. Alexander Shaw, the well-known sexton of the Richmond Cemetery, returned to the God Who gave it at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He was 40 years old and besides his aged wife, three sons and a daughter, are left to mourn the loss of a model husband and a kind and indulgent father. Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Shaw was a devoted member, at 2:30 this afternoon, conducted by Dr. B. H. Scanlon, and the burial followed in the city of the dead in which he had worked for nearly two decades. Some 20 years ago Mr. Shaw and his family came to this city from Scotland and since his arrival there has been no better citizen than he. Straightforward, honorable, industrious, he was esteemed by all and his removal from earthly scenes causes much sadness. He was a gardener in his native land for years and that accounts to some extent for the splendid condition he always kept the cemetery in. He took great interest in his work and looked with pardonable pride on his efforts. That he will be missed no one will doubt and that his twenty years' life in Richmond was a benefit to the city, there are none who will gainsay.

McCreary Soon to Announce

Justus Goebel, of Covington, was in Lexington yesterday from Frankfort, where he went to confer with Governor McCreary on business connected with the administration. He told a Herald reporter that the Governor said he would announce for United States Senator—Lexington Herald.

Opera House Tonight.

Miss Helen Gardner is a glorious poem as Cleopatra. The part would tax the art of Bernhardt. Miss Gardner's rhythmic beauty and dramatic instincts, her intellectual quality, culture and delicacy, have combined in her work to vivify and ennoble the character of "Royal Egypt" even as Bernhardt might have done at the age of twenty-six. Her costumes are truly gorgeous, representing not merely money, but exquisite taste, thought and culture. In several scenes she wears shawls and draperies and gowns that were made in Egypt hundreds of years ago, and jewels that cost over $50,000.

Freed on Motion of State's Attorney.

Thomas F. Dolan, who killed Patrick Mooney in Lexington, and who has just faced the fifth jury in his trials, is now a free man. Commonwealth's Attorney John R. Allen having made the motion to dismiss the case. The Clark county jury which heard the last trial of the celebrated case, could not agree. The members stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal. Col. Allen in asking Judge Kerr to dismiss the case against Dolan, said he would have moved for a dismissal following the last trial, but for the fact that the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and in view of that circumstance he did not think that it was consistent to recommend a dismissal. He said he did not think that it was fair to Dolan to ask him to go into another trial in view of the five trials and no legal conviction.

Your Christmas Money.

It is a good while off, but it is not too early to begin saving up money for your Christmas presents. A small amount saved each week will aggregate a nice little sum by the time the yuletide rolls around and you want to miss it. The Madison National Bank has joined the Ladies Christmas Savings Club Co., and in turn invites you to join the branch office which will be established at that Bank. The proposition is this: You deposit 5 cents April 21, when the club will organize, and 5 cents more each week, i. e. 10 cents the following week, 15 cents the next, 20 the next and so on until Dec. 1. You will be given a receipt for each week's deposit and in abundant time to make your Christmas purchases the bank will send you a check for the entire amount you have had placed to your credit. In this way you will have saved up probably sufficient to tide you over the giving time and you will not have missed the money. The club will be kept open until May 10, but it would be better to join at the opening, or as near that time as possible. Further information concerning the deposits will be furnished you very cheerfully at the bank. It is expected that the young people will become members, but an invitation is extended to the older ones as well. 50

I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

Some Good News For The Horses.

The Master Horseholders' National Protective Association, with branches in nearly seven hundred cities and towns of the country, have taken active steps to encourage the study of the anatomy of the foot and leg of the horse. At the last convention of the association, held in Denver during September, the movement now being instituted by Cornell University looking into the opening of a department on horsehoofing, received unanimous endorsement.

A head has already been engaged by Cornell to push the opening of the new department and he will be sent to Europe to study horsehoofing school methods in vogue there, and on return of the principal it is believed that steps will be taken to have the new department opened by September, 1913.

In all of the principalities of Germany as well in Belgium, Austria and some other European countries, schools for horsehoofers abound; no less than fifty-eight of such institutions are in Germany, all being under government auspices.

Only a horse, and an old horse too, working from day to day, Only a worn-out nag, 'tis true plodding his weary way.

A horse that works, and works in vain for his master's word of praise; A slave that bows to the tightened rein; a beast, that the master flays.

Only a horse; but a horse with a heart—a thin worn-out old nag; But with spirit strong, he plods along with an uncomplaining neigh.

A beast of burden by man abused, tortured with lash and with goad; But a lesson in faithfulness courage and toil—this worn-out nag of road.

Only a horse—not a brute—but a horse, a patient, tired old bay; The brute is the one that applies the lash, not the one who receives the flay.

His labors hard for his master's greed, he endures the toil and the pain; But the look of despair from his eyes is a prayer—an appeal to be humane.

Are Japs White?

California came near creating an international imbroglio several years ago by its treatment of the Chinese, and now its legislature has passed a law that no Japanese shall own land in that State. This is likewise likely to create embarrassment, and the question will be put up to the Supreme Court of the United States whether the Japanese are of Mongolian origin or as they claim of mixed Caucasian and Mayan origin.

As the Japanese seem to make good citizens and as they own only about fifty thousand acres of land in California the reason for the enactment is not apparent. Certainly they can never obtain such a foothold there as would make their presence a menace. The emigration laws forbid the landing of Chinese into the United States, but this Government has, by a treaty pledged to Japan, equal and just treatment to Japanese in America even as Japan has pledged to the United States equal and just treatment of Americans residing in Japan.

As the Japanese should not try to violate a solemn and binding treaty, but the Government has no right to appear to coerce the California legislature to prevent it from attempting to violate a contract.

The Japanese may not be as white as the Anglo-Saxon race, but they are not black, by a great margin, nor as yellow as the Chinese. This country has long been noted as the one for home-seekers, who are in earnest desire to better their conditions, and the Japanese being peculiarly energetic in many kinds of handicraft, ought to be especially welcome, and they are so far as we know except in California.—W. P. Walton in Lexington Herald.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, but until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only family medicine in the world that cures catarrh in 10 days to a permanent cure. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Chronic Coughs and Colds.

Strong, vigorous men and women hardly ever catch cold; it's only when the system is run down and vitality low that colds and coughs get a foothold.

Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your strength again?

Mrs. Olivia Parham, of East Durham, N. C., says: "I took Vinol for a chronic cough which had lasted two years, and the cough not only disappeared, but it built up my strength as well."

The reason Vinol is so efficacious in such cases is because it contains in a delicious concentrated form all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood-building from added.

Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run-down system.

You can get your money back any time if Vinol does not do all we say.

An Appreciated Letter From An Old Friend.

The following private letter to Mr. Walton, of this paper, was received by him yesterday. When he was editing the Interior Journal, at Stanford, Mr. Boone was a frequent contributor to its columns, and later when he had the Somerset Times the splendid old gentleman spent a good deal of his time in the office and was a substantial friend of the paper. He is now on a visit to his daughter in the capital of the Old Dominion and his remembrance of a friend of a third of a century is greatly appreciated.

RICHMOND, Va., April 19, 1913.

Dear Ed.—

Thinking you might not be adverse to having a line from your old friend who has been here on a visit to his children since the 7th day of February, I make bold to address you very briefly.

I feel to think you would be glad to know that the capital city of your native grand old State was forging to the front by leaps and bounds. In 20 years or less, my opinion is that she will double her present population and be as large as Cincinnati or larger.

There are now no signs left on the fair frontiers of Richmond to remind one of the scars and wounds the received in the deadly war between the States. These have faded away and in their stead grand monumental piles of bronze and marble donated by love and affection, meet the eye at every turn, and tell in mute silence the story of her brave defenders.

Right or wrong, no living man with a soul in his breast stands beside and in the shadow of these silent sentinels, and harbor an unkind thought or an ill feeling for those who fought for the cause that was lost.

Her banners are furled and laid away; her Generals nearly all dead and her marching columns, many, very many of them, have crossed the river with the peerless Jackson "to rest under the shade of the trees" with him. These stars will ever shine brightly in the galaxy of fame, and so long as men live on the face of this earth, the record they have left will be a beacon-light, let us hope, to guide us in all the coming years in emulating their heroism and devotion. Search the annals of the world, and for bravery and courage of the highest order, where will you find a counterpart for it? I think, Ed, you would look in vain for it. Since the fearful war ceased, God in His goodness has wonderfully blessed the Southland, and there is no section of our whole country that deserves more from Him than these grand people, who make up its population.

Glad you have taken hold of the Climax, as I see you have from the papers. "Cry aloud in the wilderness" and spare not—make her, as I am sure you will, a powerful force in bringing all to a knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus.

Yours truly,

S. M. BOONE.

Candidate Comes Clean.

The following is from the political column of the Louisville Times and has reference to the card recently published in the Climax by Mr. R. A. Barlow:

Madison county has one candidate for office who "comes clean" in seeking support of the voters. In his announcement he says: "I am a candidate for the office of Jailer; at the same time, or glory, but for the money there is in it."

Was not asked to run by "Many Voters," "Many Democrats," or anyone else, but am running on my own hook and responsibility. Haven't a blood relative in the county; do not nor will I belong to any clique. Am no goody-goody or tin snail; have my faults, as most of people, but if elected to the responsible position of Jailer will guarantee to care for the county's property in the very best possible manner."

Better Than Spanking

"Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. 2450, Chicago, Illinois, have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a 50c package securely wrapped and prepaid Absolutely Free to any reader of The Climax. This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day in old or young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co. is an Old Reliable House, write to them today for the free medicine. Cure the afflicted members of your family, then tell your neighbors and friends about this remedy."

"My daughter was ill for about five years with consumption, we were told she wouldn't live three months. When we commenced the use of Smith's Lung Tonic, she began immediately to improve. She used one gallon and was entirely cured. We had used a number of other things without a success. I cheerfully recommend this medicine as one of the best medicines I ever used in my family."

JUDGE W. H. BLANTON, Feb. 13, 1908. Jackson, Ky.

Philip Barnhart, New Philadelphia, Ohio, states:

"I had three specialists to treat my wife; they told me she had tuberculosis or consumption and could not get well. I had used numerous remedies before I sent for the specialists; finally as a last resort, I sent for a gallon of Smith's Lung Tonic. She is now well and has been since December 1911."

Smith's Lung Tonic is just like Smith's Liniment. 40 years test has proven this liniment the best. Who doubts it? The man who has never tried it."
